

There was between 1200 and 1500 cattle at the market, some sheep and about 100 hogs. Trade was very brisk and cattle sold rapidly at good prices. The best steers sold 3 60, cows and heifers at from 2½ to 2¾, bulls and stags at 1 to 1½. Sheep sold at from 2½ to 2¾. Hogs at from 3 to 3½ cents.

We noticed a great difference from last Court Day which was dull, but today trade was as brisk as we have seen it in twelve months — Mt. Sterling Advocate.

The Baptist evangelist, Rev. E. Summers, has broken the record for immersion in the state. He closed a great revival at Cornishville last Sunday, and in the presence of 1,200 people baptized forty-converts in exactly eight minutes.

Jesse Richardson and wife, of Estill county, are visiting at Mrs. Brandenburg's this week. — Winchester Democrat.

The Lexington Leader says there is a project to extend the Lexington & Eastern Ry. through the valuable canal coal fields near its eastern terminus. It is said that the road will be built to a connection with the Norfolk and Western which will make a short and direct route between Louisville and Newport News.
